He then moved to Toronto in Canada in 1991 to sing with a Gospel Choir there for 7 months. On returning to the UK Jaden became a Pop/R&B singer and formed a couple of boy bands until his band B-YOND was formed in August 1994. During his time with the band, B-YOND made many appearances on tv programmes such as: Blue Peter Good Morning Fives Company The Big Breakfast MTV Music Also in all teenage magazines and most radio stations nationwide. After signing to Logic BMG in July 1997 their single The Key reached No.4 in the dance charts and took them to over a thousand gigs worldwide, playing to over 308 million people. The band had an 18000 strong fan base both in the UK and abroad. The band toured with the likes of: Steps The Spice Girls Bewitched All Saints Five Bucksfizz North South Kavana Peter Andre and more When B-YOND finished, Jaden signed to Good Grove to begin his solo career. He worked with some amazing writer/producers such as Random Music-Sweden, Lulu, Peter Cunnah, Tony Swain, Billy Laurie, Elliot Kennedy, Helen Boulding, Mike Olton, Greg Fitzgerald and Aaron Friedman to name but a few, before he took a break from the music business. Now living in North Devon, Jaden is training with American opera singing coach Bonnie Bradley Bailey. Jaden's new classical sound is amazing and a welcome progression back into the music business.
