Coming from a large family of musicians and artists, Jane has always been creatively inclined. While in her insomniac phase around the turn of the century, Jane turned to songwriting as a creative outlet for her own amusement. Janes passion for songwriting grew, prompting roadtrips to Nashville where her skills were nurtured by attending songwriting workshops and performing at writers showcases, including the infamous Bluebird Caf. Jane was encouraged, while on the road to the creation of her own CD, by having two of her songs included in compilation CDs. Janes song, Finally Loving Myself can be heard on Gracie Vandiver and Friends recovery music CD, Trail of Light, which also includes such songwriting greats as Paul Williams and Mary Gauthier; and Thank You Ms Juliette is on the Girl Scouts of the USAs CD, Sisters Hand in Hand. Janes own debut CD, Choose Beauty, includes 12 songs, many of which are enhanced by a blend of sibling harmonies and musicianship. Choose Beauty is a collection of original Americana songs, grown from Janes imagination, experience, and observations of the drama, comedy, and beauty in everyday life.
