With influences from Beethoven, Chopin to Debussy, "Living The Drama" , is like taking a trip straight into the classical and romantic periods with a contemporary flare. 14 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: "Living The Drama" is a collection of original piano Compositions by new age pianist Kendell Healy. The music is reflective of the Romantic time period, with a strong contemporary flare. Influences range from Beethoven, Chopin, and Debussy to more modern artists like Jim Brickman and George Winston. It is a very passionate and compelling collection of songs with a strong implication for the minor. With songs like "The Downward Spiral", which leans towards the classical era, to a more contemporary piece, like "A Tahitian Pearl", this collection of songs is a must have in any music lovers' library. The imagery this cd creates is visually breathtaking, and will leave you in awe with every listen.
