Its the 2nd album from the now 12 year old LIL CRISE aka THE FUTURE.. He Produced it. Wrote it. Manufactured it.. Sells it, both on the streets here 8 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Born into a family of musicians this young wonderkin showed early signs of rhythm, I knew I saw greatness when my nephew (my great aunt's site panonthenet.com/woman/2005/Albino-deCoteau.htm)was able to bang out the rhythmic pattern of any song emanating from the radio on his feeding tray, As a matter of fact the only reason the child would cry was when the radio was turned off .I remember his dad would sit him down on his lap at some of his rehearsals when his current gig was the drummer, he'd even make him play the hi hats while he was playing the pedals .Delaun(lil Crise) once told me"he would drive me crazy with music but im glad he gave me lessons in the drums, the piano, the guitar and just recently the bass" .Being that his father owns a recording studio in the heart of Brooklyn, which music influences are predominantly Rap, Delaun would ultimately fall under that blanket His dad had wanted initially to have someone write for him and even though he(crise) told him he can do it himself he went ahead and wrote 2 songs, which were great and every one was exited but when I bought my book of rhymes it brought more of me to the table and of course the ghost writer wouldn't be needed any more. 8 songs were finished but we were told I was too young for the game, ha" he exclaimed" if bow wow and Romeo could do it, was the world really ready for me Lil C r is e"I have the album myself and it aint like nothing yall got on the radio. Hope you are ready.
