A sultry tribute to 5 of your favorite African American Artists with a chillaxin vibe. 5 MP3 Songs

URBAN/R&B: Soul, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: MARGOT B. Inspired is a collection of some of the many artists that have inspired me along the way. When I think of India Arie and the depth of her words and voice, it inspires me to go that deep. When I think of Sade and her sultry voice, it inspires me to be that smooth--to be that sultry. And Lauryn Hills creation and delivery of Just Like the Water allowed me to envision my voice as an instrumentone that only I know how to play. When I hear the sensual tunes of Toni Braxton, the passion from within her voice, it gives me the inspiration to sing from the deepest part of my soul. And, with a lifetime of music behind her that is timeless, Billie Holiday gives me the cue to explore deep within myself and see no boundaries. Together, these artists have been mentors to me in a way that I hope I can convey in my personal delivery to you. Although I am a singer/songwriter
