Let these savage young brutes steal your hearts, minds and wallets with their gigantic blend of surf rock, Texas muscle, vintage garage pop and wit. Don't forget the nitro-burnin' guitar of N.J.'s Gretsch- and Fender-bending hero, Damian Fanelli. 19 MP3 Songs ROCK: Instrumental Rock, ROCK: 60's Rock

Details: Deep Eddy Records (deepeddy.net) is proud to announce the release of MISTER NEUTRON LOVES YOU, the new CD by Mister Neutron. The band, a lovely-and-talented power trio from Cranford, N.J., is burning up the Northeast with its most unusual blend of power pop, surf and explosive Texas blues. MISTER NEUTRON LOVES YOU draws on the group's devotion to the aggressive rock tradition of The Who, The Jam and Stephen Malkmus, plus the deviant instrumental tendencies of Los Straitjackets. To this they add a pinch of lyrical zaniness inspired by They Might Be Giants and Cake, not to mention decades of immersion in Monty Python. Who is Mister Neutron, you ask? Who are the savage young brutes who have stolen the hearts, minds and wallets of America's garage-rock community? Mister Neutron is Damian Fanelli (guitar, vocals), Tony Fanelli (bass) and Drew Paradine (drums). Their action-packed, 19-track CD features 18 originals, including "Naughty Bits," "Soledad O'Brien," "Go, Stinky Monkey!," "A Mod Proposal" and "Mrs. Neil Armstrong," which is about falling in love with the wife of the famous crewcutted astronaut. MISTER NEUTRON LOVES YOU is four years in the making and 57 minutes in the listening. And everyone who hears their music repeats the same refrain: "To hear Mister Neutron is to fall in love with Mister Neutron." So attach Mister Neutron's CD to your charm bracelet and get ready to fall in love.
