It's called the "I-dance"Mr.E/T.O.B. the next song "I can't remember" is about.....I ferget...Mr.E/T.O.B. "cajun women" with imported guest artist the "harmonica beast of the south" juke joint johnny winkler , outa south caroline Mr.E/T.O.B. "vacation song" is what it is , I went to Tampa bay to check out some friends horse's , was in town for the superbowl , it's about the ride down and back...and it's the way it was , really , ask cooley..... Mr.E/T.O.B. "ever been lonely?" the only country blues song I ever wrote , again featuring the harp of the "beast" , featured on garageband's "track of the day" blues front page oct.2004 , made it to number two on a top 100 chart on mp3songs.org.uk , also in october 2004 oh well....Mr.E/T.O.B. "diner song" is about when I was hanging out in the "rooms".....Mr.E/T.O.B. "freight train" is a train song w/guest guitarist Tony Martino/Mr.E/T.O.B. "truck driver song" featured on garagebandcountry front page 2004 won several awards , including track of the day. I wrote it on my way to nashville , ain't got there yet...Mr.E/T.O.B. "somedays" is a song of hope"...Mr.E/T.O.B. "is it in your heart" is a song which was written to Elisabeth , (one of the two sisters) , and is part of a trilogy in song , the other songs are "Bozanna" and "Henry Lowry" you can find them on "Planet E" and the "Tall Ships". "Bozanna" is written in 5 languages the loving tongues of Latin , French , Spanish , English ,and the title in Polish showing the universality of it's theme of love. the trilogy is about how these 5 different women from all over the world ended up crossing paths with me right here in my small town (the chosen spot). Each of the 5 inspired a line or two each toward the song. The five women whom are involved names are Mary the most famous mother of them all , who got the ball rolling , Elisabeth and her sister Elenora were from Germany , and have since gone back , and who turned out to be Henry's long lost daughters , Bozanna was from Poland , her name and the title of the song means "God's Given" in polish , she left in a hurry , then I met Amanda who appeared out of nowhere , her name fit phonetically ...poetically speaking... her beauty inspired 3 lines of the song bringing it to it's end. The third song in the trilogy is "Henry Lowry", he was from St. Croix , he was Elisabeth's and Elenora's long lost father who they searched the world to find and a good friend of mine. I gotta thank the totally obscure band , for all the fine musicianship he did on this one and all the rest of the songs he performs onMr.E/T.O.B. "comes in the morning"... a little song written around 4:20 a.m. featuring Rick Van Fleet on guitar/Mr.E/T.O.B. special thanks to all the great talent who make these things happen I guess that's it for now , hope you enjoy the songs , hope they make ya smile..... later
