Extraordinary Hip Hop for ordinary people. Think the Black Eyed Peas + Lauryn Hill and lil' bit of Red Meth. 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Remember when Hip Hop use to be fun, creative, and intelligent? Nonpareilyx does. The three emcees have criss-crossed the line of traditionally commercial and underground sounds to create their self-titled, third independent offering. With the raucous bravado of lyricists like Eminem and Red Meth on "NONP's Hot", the energetic party starting ability a la the Black Eyed Peas on "How We Party", and the social intelligence of Lauryn Hill or Kanye West on "If I", Nonpareilyx has 'frankensteined' a sound for the future. The lyrical content and stylistic deliveries fuse with the neck jarring beats and complimentary melodies to present an album worthy of CD players and iPods everywhere. It's like M.T. Mind says in "We Feelin U": ". . . your shoulders and ass might start vibratin' | it might take you by surprise | but wait! | you like where the vibe's takin' ya . . . " Nonpareil means unparalleled or matchless, and lyx is slang for lyrics. The two words combine to describe a group that operates within their own parameters, and who's left-of-center approach to Hip Hop will continue to be the answer for those looking for something refreshingly different.
