An eclectic amalgum of rock, hip-hop, alternative, and more rock. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Hard Rock, HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Details: "Natural Born Thriller", the debut album from 'The G Orchestra', is about as accurate a title as one could expect from the Los Angeles-based artist. From the opening monologue track "Musical People", to the thunderous intro "Welcome to the Blue", to the underground hit single "Look What They Got For Me", the album takes you on a never-ending THRILL ride that'll leave you breathless to the very end. Hearing the serenity of all 7 guitars on "Alone Time", then getting thrown into the teeth of the hypersonic "Dogmata" is truly a musical treat you have to experience. You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll scowl, you'll absolutely love "Natural Born Thriller"! Writing songs since he was 9 years old, prolific producer/artist John Gloster (aka JohnG) has never let up in his quest to bring his fresh, exciting brand of music to a broader audience. Originally from the Washington DC area, JohnG grew up listening to anything and everything he could get access to. "I remember helping my mother clean the apartment when I was 5 yrs old. She'd play everything from Parliament to Led Zeppelin, and I loved it all.." explains the artist. "I credit her for raising me with an open mind to love all genres of music, and it's completely evident when you listen to our music. The influences are there." Now residing in Los Angeles, CA, JohnG currently produces music for his namesake 'The G Orchestra', as well as other bands, artists, and film companies.
