Details: What people are saying about Where you Go, the latest release from Tonefarmer: "...Dreamy, lush, melodic pop arrangements" - Rick Bird, Cincinnati Post "A great sense of melody, melodrama, storyline and sound..." - mp3.com.au "Their work seems to float between upbeat, easy pop and more intense, at times haunting, songs." - Cincinnati "There's a certain depth to each track that ages well. Maybe not Radiohead-ambitious, mind you, but quite a bit more accessible, and certainly way out in front of anything being perpetrated on us by the major labels these days. Get this disc. You'll keep it." - Joe Wiesner, Whitefish Bay, WI "While Where You Go may be brief, it is never slight. It's always a wonderful experience, finding an artist who can say so much and leave a vast impression on you over the course of six songs, and Tonefarmer have won me over. Does the world still like intelligent music? I hope so, for Tonefarmer's sake; they have quietly discovered a wonderful pop-song formula, and it's merely a matter of time until the world soon discovers their magic. Still, an excellent record like Where You Go should not go unheard; luckily, I have this distinct feeling that it won't." - Joseph Kyle, mundanesounds Best New Artist 2002 Cincinnati Enquirer CAMMY Awards Nominated for Cincinnati Citybeats CEA Best New Artist 2001 Latest release Where You Go Produced by Pete Lewis (Massive Attack, Pulp, Goldfrapp, Everything but the Girl, etc.) recorded in London at The Dairy WOXY FM 97X Top 20 Exposure Artist Airplay on numerous radio/web stations worldwide Peoplesound(London) Editors Choice and Top 20 Band CDs available at CDBaby the number one independent online CD retailer
