Details: Varga grew up in Zimbabwe, Africa, where he worked for television as a cameraman/director and produced, wrote and acted in productions, mainly with musical and new age themes. In his spare time as a member of various groups, he would play music for clubs, weddings and concerts as well as theatre shows, musicals and pantomines, mainly in the rock/pop genre. A lot of work was done in benefit concerts to preserve wild life in Zimbabwe. His debut album includes, "Love Train" a metaphorical journey of the love train inside us all. "A Soldier's Dream" relates how our karmas can find us in a war even if we abhor the thought, has a scorching guitar solo and persuasive orchestration that bring you right into the dream. "Shave my Gorilla" reminds you of the untamed part of ourselves that people will try to tame (shave). "Only love" is a richly layered plea to speak less and love more, followed by "Thanks" - everything has it's purpose. Sleeve notes for the upbeat "Dance like no-one is watching you" say, Go on! You are already where you longed to be. "River of Love",wraps up a unique album with a compassionate key and is the title track; a triumphant dedication to those serving the River of Love
