This book is a guide to leadership, supervision, management, productivity, training and communication for today's leaders. Xtreme Leadership asks the reader to define leadership as it applies to them, their employees and their customers. It also, asks them to reflect on good principles by the leader. More importantly this book is geared to leadership practices centered around employees being the most valuable asset to a company and to be valuable they must be properly trained to be professionals in their area of expertise. It concludes with a different interpretation of the old adage of "Win-Win" as it applies to the new generation of employees and customers. Author: Williams, J. C.
