

International Handbook Of White-collar And Corporate Crime

DOWNLOAD HERE

1; Table of Contents; 6 2; Preface; 9 3; Acknowledgments; 14 4; Part I Introduction: Theoretical Issues in Organizational and Corporate Lawbreaking; 16 4.1; 1 Beyond Macro- and Micro-Levels of Analysis, Organizations, and the Cultural Fix; 17 4.1.1; Causes of Individual Crime and Deviance: The Covert Debate; 19 4.1.2; Situated Action: Institutions, Agency, and the Macro Meso Micro-Connection; 20 4.1.3; Situated Action: The Empirical and Conceptual Foundation in White-Collar Crime; 22 4.1.4; The Cultural Fix and The Normalization of Deviance; 24 4.1.5; The Connection Between Causes and Strategies for Control; 27 4.1.6; Endnotes; 31 4.1.7; References; 35 4.2; 2 Understanding Corporate Lawbreaking: From Profit Seeking to Law Finding; 39 4.2.1; Matters of Method; 40 4.2.2; Causes and Conditions of Corporate Lawbreaking; 41 4.2.3; Business Rationality and Legal Compliance; 42 4.2.4; Corporations, Culture, and Choice; 45 4.2.5; Law and Lawbreaking; 50 4.2.6; Endnotes; 54 4.2.7; References; 59 4.3; 3 Attributing Responsibility for Organizational Wrongdoing; 64 4.3.1; The Social Construction of Organizational Wrongdoing; 65 4.3.1.1; Lessons from the Pinto and Challenger Cases; 65 4.3.1.2; Willfulness and Organizational Wrongdoing; 70 4.3.2; A Four-Step Model of Attributing Responsibility for Organizational Wrongdoing; 73 4.3.2.1; Step 1: The Social Construction of Facts and Norms; 74 4.3.2.2; Step 2: Actor Characteristics and Organizational/Institutional Context of Action; 77 4.3.2.2.1; Actor Characteristics; 77 4.3.2.2.2; Organizational/Institutional Context of Action; 79 4.3.2.3; Step 3: Audience Characteristics; 80 4.3.2.4; Step 4: Attribution of Responsibility; 82 4.3.3; Conclusion; 82 4.3.4; Endnotes; 83 4.3.5; References; 86 5; Part II White-Collar Criminogenesis: Structure, Motivation, and Rationalization; 92 5.1; 1 Generative Worlds of White-Collar Crime; 93 5.1.1; Definitional Nets; 93 5.1.2; Class and Respectability; 95 5.1.3; Interpersonal and Cultural Correlates; 97 5.1.4; Class, Culture and Criminogenesis; 100 5.1.5; Competition; 101 5.1.6; Entitlement; 104 5.1.7; Crime Constructions; 105 5.1.8; Beyond Generative Worlds; 106 5.1.9; Acknowledgments; 107 5.1.10; References; 107 5.2; 2 Because They Can Motivations and Intent of White-Collar Criminals; 110 5.2.1; I. White-Collar Crime Committed with an Ostensible Awareness of the Criminal Implications; 113 5.2.1.1; Deliberate and Fully Conscious

Behavior;113 5.2.1.1.1;League of Gentlemen: Business Crimes as SOP (Standard Operating Procedure);113 5.2.1.1.2;Condemning the Condemners: The Van der Valks Take on the Regulators;114 5.2.1.1.3;Opportunistic and Predatory Deviance: The Savings and Loan Scandals;116 5.2.1.1.4;Mega-Fraud at the Top;117 5.2.2;II. White-Collar Crime Committed with an Ostensible Unawareness of the Criminal Implications: Filters, Blindness, and Pathology;119 5.2.2.1;Lone Trader: Sliding Down the Slippery Slope at Barings;119 5.2.2.2;EyesWide Shut: The Split Personality Company;122 5.2.2.3;When Corporate Strategy Kills: GreatWestern Railways and the Southall Train Crash;123 5.2.3;III. Where the Contextual Ambiguities in the Law Encourage Would-be Offenders to Believe (or be Able to Rationalize to Themselves) That They are not Engaged in Illegal Activity;127 5.2.3.1;Pushing the Boundaries: The Guinness Affair;127 5.2.4;Conclusion;130 5.2.5;Acknowledgments;131 5.2.6;Endnotes;131 5.2.7;References;133 6;Part III Critical and Postmodern Approaches to Research;135 6.1;1 Researching Corporate and White-Collar Crime in an Era of Neo-Liberalism;136 6.1.1;Introduction: Knowing About Corporate and White-Collar Crimes;136 6.1.2;Neo-Liberalism and the Entrepreneurial University;138 6.1.2.1;Taking the University to Market;138 6.1.2.2;Criminology and Power ;141 6.1.3;Researching Corporate and White-Collar Crime in an Era of Neo-Liberalism?;144 6.1.3.1;Regulating Funding: The Construction of Feasible Enquiry;145 6.1.3.2;Regulating Access : Power, Control, Exclusion;146 6.1.3.3;Disseminating Research EAN/ISBN : 9780387341118 Publisher(s): Springer, Berlin, Springer US Discussed keywords: Wirtschaftsstrafrecht Format: ePub/PDF Author(s): Pontell, Henry N. - Geis, Gilbert L.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

Wirtschaftsstrafrecht: Insolvenzdelikte, Insbesondere Betrug Und Untreue - Andre Herkendell

Welche Weiterungen Hat Â§ 15a InsO GegenÃ¼ber Dem FrÃ¼heren Rechtszustand Gebracht: Eine Betrachtung Aus Wirtschaftsstrafrechtlicher Sicht - Lennart Dornieden