Details: Music is one of the vehicles through which divine energy becomes grounded on this planet. I am privileged to be an instrument through which The Source offers us that gift. My latest CD, "In the Mist," brings us into another dimension. My first CD, "The Gift of Peace" helps bring peace into our hearts. And the second CD, "A Soul's Journey Through Darkness Light" reflects on the variety of life's moments, concluding with transcendence and rebirth. My musical story starts when I was a child in New York City, when I learned to play classical piano. At the age of 15, I became severely and chronically ill and lost the capacity to play an instrument, and a huge part of my self-expression was squelched. In my 50s, I discovered the electronic keyboard, but I still was too disabled to play. In time, I determined that if I could not play the music I loved, I would compose music I could play, and between the computer, synthesized sound and the easy touch of electronic keyboards, my musical creativity was unleashed. Had I not been disabled, I might have been content to continue to play the music of the masters, rather than to become an instrument for the divine. And I would never have had the opportunity to express through a flute, a Space Voice, a drum and so many other instruments. Although I had devoted my life to social activism until my mid-30's I was gifted with unusual intuitive powers in 1980 when I was 35, and I've been an intuitive counselor and consultant ever since. In addition to composing music, I write books and articles, offer spiritual teaching, workshops and seminars, and develop programs as guided. All my work is geared to helping us as individuals and as a collective to achieve our potential and experience Oneness. In 1983, I founded The Stream, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping redefine what it means to be human.

The Stream provides services and is also a community, and we offer many transformational programs, techniques, tools and modalities for people to effect real and permanent change. Please look at The Stream website, thestream.org. You may find something of interest there. Our world is experiencing the crisis of the collapse of old ways and structures. Always aiming to turn crisis into opportunity, my work and our organization continually reach out to others, inviting us all to come together to reinvent ourselves on a higher level, one that connects us simultaneously more deeply to ourselves and to the Oneness. This is our time. I am happy to offer you the opportunity to experience the energy of "In the Mist." May it transport you to the place where we already are one.
