Indie pop in the vein of X, Avengers, Pixies, Go-Go's and Imperial Teen 15 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: CERAMIC HOLIDAY takes deep melodic guitar riffs, adds a good-old-fashioned punk rock rhythm section and tops it off with powerful vocals to make up an angry, soulful sound that's all their own. 2000 found the band expanding into the visual arena. They shot their first music video with up-and-coming director Robert Johnson. And their popular club hit THE HAUNT is featured in the MIMIC II soundtrack produced by Miramax. Principle songwriters, Paul Anthony Arellano (formerly of Uprising) and Jennifer Robinson (formerly of The FEM&M's) invited two friends from school (Kathleen Ogushi on drums and Kent Fernandez on bass) to form a band and CERAMIC HOLIDAY was born - a true Los Angeles native. The assemblage turned out to be magic and the band has been creating scores of rocking songs such as LOVE HAZE, THE SOLUTION and H.BANGER ever since. In 1999, the band started playing Los Angeles clubs. They have built a following locally and have fans all over the world via their internet presence. The band launched a website in the spring of 2000 and are featured on many MP3 sites around the web. Currently they are working on new material to follow-up their self-titled CD.
