Relaxed, smooth R&B soul pop 5 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: Her fans describe her sound as therapeutic, sensual and emotional. In this debut EP; Chin-yer, an aspiring musical therapist, sings of love and healing in tones that soothes and refreshes. This old soul in a young body who prefers to listen mostly to music recorded in the 60's and 70's, maintains an "old school" sound and vibe in her delivery as well. Compared to Nina Simone and Roberta Flack but having a very distinct presentation, Chin-yer continues the legacy of the Jazz and R&B greats. Chin-yer is currently working on her full length recording project entitled "Sensual Healing". This first volume EP is just the beginning for this meditative soul singer from Baltimore, MD. We trust it will be the beginning of great things to come.
