Maui based singer/songwriter Gail Swanson, showcases her mellow acoustic songs on this heartfelt CD. 7 MP3 Songs FOLK: Progressive Folk, COUNTRY: Alt-Country Show all album songs: Warm Heart in a Cold World Songs Details: Maui based singer/songwriter, Gail Swanson is one of Hawaii's most dedicated rock performers. She has opened for Melissa Etheridge, Lisa Loeb, The Doobie Brothers, David Crosby and CPR, The Radiators, Cecilio and Kapono, Lisa Loeb, Leon Russell and has done numerous shows with Willie Nelson and Pat Simmons. She also performed at the Maui Music Festival before her long time favorite singer/songwriter/surfer Jack Johnson. Heavily influenced by a wide range of singer/songwriters including Ani DiFranco, Sheryl Crow, Melissa Etheridge, Lisa Loeb, Bonnie Raitt and more, Gail's style is acoustic pop/rock with some songs crossing over into the country genre. Swanson independently releases, promotes and distributes her own music, a catalogue of four CDs. "Warm Heart in a Cold World" showcases Gail's acoustic side. Living in a Movie won a prestigious Hawaiian music award, a Na Hoku Hanohano for BEST ROCK ALBUM OF THE YEAR. (Hawaiian Academy of Recording Artists) Living in a Movie features special guests, Willie Nelson and Patrick Simmons from the Doobie Brothers. The double CD includes 8 rock songs recorded in Nashville with a full band, and 8 acoustic songs recorded on Maui. Gail maintains a large and loyal fan base in Hawaii and all over the U.S. who support her alternative folk/rock acoustic show when she comes to their town. She promotes her own career with help from her regional fan clubs, street teams and on the internet. As an artist, Gail loves to tour and perform, but her career focus is diverse. As a songwriter, her goal is to have major label artists record her songs, and to have her material in film/tv.
