The styles are reminiscent of being on an isolated serene island that has suddenly been attacked by an "ATOMIC BOOM". - It's Crazy. - Totally - "Under the Radar" - R&B; RAP; ROCK - Need I say more. 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: This is Pharaoh Rider's Sophomore Edition. The Label learned more about the in's out's of the business. As a result, the final product is much better. The lead artists on the tracks are: G'Bow; ZanMan; and Chel'le Girlie. G'Bow is home-based in LA. When he's not laying tracks in the studio, he can be found working as an "extra" on many of the prime time shows that appear on television (I can't say the names due to copyrights infringements). However, next time you watch, check out the people in the background. The tall skinny "Black Dude" is probably G'Bow. G'Bow leads the tracks "American Born", "Diamond Girl", "Real", "Quite Like Me", "Feelingz", "Proud", "We Miss U". By far G'Bow is the Lead, Lead on the CD. ZanMan is home-based in Atlanta. He's the driving force behind the Label. His lead is on the track "Thuggin' in the City". ZanMan says he does the rap thing because he can't sing. ZanMan had his hands in the arrangements and production of all the tracks on the CD. He's a good behind the lines man. Chel'le Girlie is home-based in Chicago. She has talents that she doesn't even know about. Her leads are in "723-8004" which was her Grandmother's telephone number back in the day; and "What, What, What, What"; A story about a creepin' married female. She also does the Rap on Diamond Girl. Her styles of RAP are Eastern USA (Lil Kim) with a twist of Midwest(The Brat); but she keeps it unique real with a touch of Jazz; like on the "Diamond Girl" track. All All - These artists styles and deliveries are "off" the hook - Totally "Under The Radar" - Check them out!
