"lulls the listener in with hypnotic grooves and then erupts with energy and emotion." 9 MP3 Songs

ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Emo Details: Glori-H is the former band of Philadelphia musician Brian Donahue. With Donahue on guitar and vocals, Brian Eberle on bass, and Mark Darin also on guitar, Glori-H performed together for 8 years in Philadelphia and the Eastern US. Joined by Scott Lloyd on drums, Glori-H recorded this album just as the band was nearing its end. After an amicable parting of ways, Donahue, the band's primary songwriter, continued to put the finishing touches on the record while working as a solo artist both acoustically and with a new band. Finally the album was released, post-humously as it were, but a fine record filled with the powerful grooves and heart-on-sleeve emotions for which the band had become known. Several of the songs can be heard in Donahue's performances with his new band... Whether you are an old fan of the band, a fan of Brian Donahue's new material, or simply looking to find a hidden gem of original and moving songwriting... check out this album!
