Inside delivers rootsy folk-rock to heartfelt ballads from this award-winning songwriter. 15 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: This 1999 release from Carper includes fourteen original songs. From rootsy folk-rock to heartfelt ballads, Inside truly showcases Carper's award winning songwriting. Self-produced and recorded at MiCasa Studio in Seattle, WA, this album features the tight harmonies of trio-mates Becca Christel and Tracy Spring, as well as additional backing vocals by Renee Redeker, Heidi Muller, Connie Bigelow and Allison Roberts, plus a soaring duet with former singing partner Larry Murante. Also featured are Dan Mohler and Walter White on bass. Carper tastefully layers her own multi-instrumental talents on mandolin, lead and slide acoustic and electric guitars, percussion and bass. "This is a wonderful album showcasing the work of songwriter, vocalist, and multi-instrumentalist, Janis Carper, in nicely layered arrangements . . . Carper's throaty alto resonates with solid womanly strength. Her lyrics are simple, effective poetry without frills. . . Got to hear this one for yourself!" - Victory Review
