Details: A native of Utica, New York, John Keller had begun playing guitar and writing songs as a teenager. Since that time, he has honed his skills to become a well-received performer/songwriter, as well as a sideman with several musical projects. His talents are best reflected in his solo ventures, which the Rome Observer defined as lively...original musical art. His CD releases include, Words We Say, Words We Read (2000), the 4 track The Christmas EP (2001) and Grazin at the Margins. Each contain fan favorites i.e. Age of Modern Man, Dont Walk Away, The Light, and Make Me Believe. The Rome Observer described the music as ... a mixture of bluegrass fronting a breath of chunky blues, love ballads and Americana folk tunes. His vocals have been thought of as ... swinging from Dr. Johns growl to (Roy) Orbisons vocal caress... And quoting from The Life and Times of Oneida County, ... intriguing vocals... circumscribe the refined arrangements...his guitar creates rich and resonant melodies... Johns third full-length album, a completely solo effort in the Springsteen Nebraska style, entitled, Hard Luck Highway, which Exmogulcalls ...an up-close personal style...featuring excellent folksy acoustic guitar... A new album, His newest recording,Captive Audio is a return to a full band effort. He has done session work produced albums for others. His songs have been recorded by others. Johns music has been heard on Central NY radio, including WOUR, WRCK, and WRUN, and as far as WMNF Tampa Florida. Most recently, his song Travis, was number one for two weeks on Radio Belgium. John has been a mainstay on the Java Circuit, performing the stages of The Tramontane Caf, The Black Cow in Croton-on Hudson, NY, Happy Endings -Syracuse, et. al. Hes performed at colleges, clubs, family venues and festivals. These include SUNYIT Utica/Rome, Utica College, WCCC in Youngstown, PA, The Electric Company, Betsy the Barge in Marcy NY, The Lionheart Blues Caf in Albany, The Barking Spider in Cleveland, OH, as well as Mountain Jam, SoulFlow, and Harvest Celebration. John has performed in many benefit shows. In fact, a portion of the sales from his Christmas EP, goes to the American Red Cross. John organized the Acoustic Showcase series held at The Rock and Roll Preserve, which helped promote local musicians. He appears in Jennifer Perezs award winning indie documentary 60 Minutes of Freedom - A Revolution Through Music. Johns music is regularly featured on CNY television program, Mohawk Valley Living. One of his songs is currently being considered for major motion picture inclusion. John is a client with the CANN Talent Agency. He has contributed music columns to several widely read Central New York newspapers. Besides being a performing musician, John has been President of The Utica Music Alliance Resource Center, Inc. (UMARC). UMARC is a non-profit organization designed to encourage and promote the creation of original music in the Mohawk Valley, help provide musicians with the resources on and for the business of music, as well as expose the public to the art of music. He hosts a monthly Songwriters Circle at The Tramontane, as well a weekly Open Mic in Rome, NY . When not performing, John can be found at his vintage record shop, Off-Center Records. For nearly 15 years, he has stocked and sold rare valuable vinyl recordings worldwide. Music runs through the heart and soul of John Keller, and he wouldnt want it any other way.
