instrumental renditions of tunes from Irish, Scottish, and other musical traditions with a Celtic influence, performed on hammer dulcimer, fiddle, guitar and harp 15 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Dirty Linen says, "Marcille Wallis is a fine dulcimer player ... distinctive ... [she emphasizes] the beauty of the old melodies." Ramblessays, "a beautiful collection of traditional Celtic instrumental music ... you will want to listen over and over again." How sweet it is when Marcille Wallis plays the hammer dulcimer! ... captivating music lovers of all ages with haunting melodies from Brittany and Galicia, rousing reels and jigs from Ireland, and traditional Scottish pipe tunes with a non-traditional twist. Her repertoire also reflects the influence of her Southern Appalachian heritage, with Christian hymns, old-time fiddle tunes and ballads, even a touch of bluegrass! Marcille's musical interests have taken her from the grand opera houses of Europe, to one-room cabins in remote coves of North Carolina, to the Wonderful World of Disney! With seven CD's to her credit, Marcille's music can be heard on radio stations and Internet broadcasts world-wide and on PBS Television across the U.S.
