A Perfect Piece of Ear Candy- New Orleans' Offbeat Magazine. Great songs unforgettable melodies, this amazing first CD by Mark Galasso- .a.k.a. (Antifluff Superstar) paints a fresh face on the pop song art form. 17 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Beatles-pop Details: Perchaplectic is a one of a kind collection of songs recordings reflecting this artist's range of musical interests. Presented in an album format, the CD is 74 minutes long. All of the material was recorded mixed by Galasso in his home studio and the musicians playing on the CD are all exceptional. Many of them were child prodigies, and all of them are from Baton Rouge, Louisiana. New Orleans' "Offbeat" magazine called PERCHAPLECTIC: "A Perfect Piece of Ear-Candy... Perchaplectic does have its share of expert playing, tasteful while exploratory, especially Gary Don Smith's blues licks and Galasso's own Prince-like mastery of almost every instrument he puts his hand on. Imagine a Double Fantasy-era John Lennon transported to the Nineties and blissfully ignoring the Alternative and Electronica explosions and you'll get some idea of what's going on. And the sole break with convention-the medley of "I'm Comin' Over/Perchaplectic" and "Heaven"-works so well that one realizes even this is not the limit of Galasso's talents. Where are the A&R suits when you need 'em. - The best local pop record of this new year." Mark Galasso has also been recognized Nationally and Internationally for nine funky - New Orleans Style- radio jingles he has written for the Louisiana Lottery Corporation. (See: "Lottery Jingles" also available on CD Baby, iTunes many PC download sites) In 1999, his jingle "Pick 4" won "Best Radio Spot" at the North American Lottery Awards in Halifax, Nova Scotia. The competition, involved 49 lottery companies from all over North America. In 1999, Galasso singed on with Labrador Records in England where Perchaplectic was the featured CD on Audiostreetwho called the CD, "a stunning eclectic collection of 17 songs". In 2001 his song "Let's Make it Work Somehow" charted at #14 on the garageband"Pop" charts and was featured as

"Song of the Day" based on enthusiastic reviews by listeners from all over the world. Two songs off of Perchaplectic, the Bowie-ish "Blonde Fair", and his Epic "10 Miles Away" have been licensed by Shockwave for use in their Photojam application.
