Traditional instrumentation of fiddle, bodhran, guitar, vocals and whistle. Haunting melodies along with toe tapping fiddle tunes and song. 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: Irish Traditional, FOLK: Celtic Folk Show all album songs: Dear Irish Boy Songs Details: Damian O'Braonain (Brennan) Guitar, Vocals, Bodhran and Whistles. Damian the youngest of ten was born in Belfast N.Ireland and even as a baby was noted for his ability to make sounds! These sounds were later refined as music by teachers at the Holy Child primary school who directed and greatly encouraged Damian to pursue his musical career. Damian started with the Tin Whistle under the guidance of teachers and then was mentored by the great Gogi McCullough (all Ireland Whistle Champion) Damian then self taught himself the Bodhran and guitar with vocals coming later. Damian's stage persona is always entertaining laced with some hysterically funny and high energy performances. Fiddle / Guitar / vocals Sara was brought up in British Columbia Canada on the beautiful Sunshine coast, born to an Irish mother who played a huge part in encouraging Sara to pursue playing the violin. Her live performance debut started outside the liquor store in Sechelt (Sunshine Coast) where she entertained passersbys with lively Irish fiddle tunes. Although classically trained Sara has displayed a wide range of styles and is currently enjoying success as a Jazz student at the highly recognized Capilano College in North Vancouver. Prior to that Sara studied at the Vancouver Academy of music and also played with the Vancouver youth symphony orchestra. This amazing fiddler continues to delight audiences with not only her abilities but with the true nature of her captivating stage presence, mischievous on stage humor and delightful smile that brings tremendous joy to each venue. Sara Fitzpatrick is also an accomplished vocalist whose breath taking versions of Irish ballads render every audience speechless. A must see!
