POP: with Live-band Production, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Steve Williams is a singer songwriter from Larose, Louisiana who captured the attention of platinum selling artist Edwin McCain and award winning producer Noel Golden in October of 2006. After getting together with Noel and Edwin, Steve decided to go into the studio with members of his band as well as members from the Edwin McCain Band, and create the album "Sometimes". "The songs on this album are heart felt, and Steve Williams is as good as any when it comes to telling some great stories." (Noel Golden) "My guitar has been an amazing passport to great experiences and friendships. My favorite surprise of the year is my discovery of Steve Williams. His love of music and his dedication to the craft of songwriting has inspired me all over again. I love this record." (Edwin McCain) Don't forget to Listen to our 1st CD.
