He is the ghost eater, and he has no name. Robbed of his life and his identity, his only purpose is to fulfill the quest the animal spirits have given him: leave his people and journey into the land of the Enemies. Find an Enemy woman and make of her an ally. Gwendith has been released from the insane asylum, but the visions that drove her there still haunt her. When the young man whose murder she saw appears before her as one of the undead, she must question not only the possibility that her visions are true, but that everything her people hold sacred is a lie. To fight the Devourer that imperils both of their worlds, ghost eater and madwoman must overcome old hatreds to join forces. But can two people who have lost it all find the courage to save everything?
