

Mp3 Adrian Baker - Runaway Tracks

DOWNLOAD HERE

After many years of touring with the Beach Boys band, Adrian releases his brand new CD. 14 MP3 Songs

POP: 60's Pop, POP: California Pop Details: "Runaway Tracks," Adrian's sixth solo album, features original compositions, a new version of his hit song, "Sherry, and covers of Lou Christie's, "Lightning Strikes," Del Shannons Runaway, and even George and Ira Gershwins, I Got Rhythm." The seven original songs (two co-written with British musician Martin Lawford) further demonstrate Adrian's gift for crafting catchy pop hooks, dynamic riffs and infectious melodies that propelled him to the top of the British charts in the 70s. Standouts on this cd include the Queen-influenced A Word Called Love, the soulful guitar and rich vocal harmonies of Accept My Love, a joyous celebration of driving down Pacific Coast Highway #1 and So You Wanna Be A Star, a track with echoes of Bob Fosses All That Jazz, which suggests that Baker could carve out a third career on Broadway. Other original songs include Don't Look Back, a surprisingly hopeful tale of overcoming lost love; Back In 65, a loving look back at the first British rock revolution; and Story 'bout A Song, which could be Adrian's answer to Paul McCartneys Silly Love Songs, or even Bruce Johnstons I Write The Songs. Despite the wide diversity of styles encompassed by "Runaway Tracks," Adrian's tight vocal harmonies and virtuoso musicianship hold the album together beautifully. Produced, arranged and engineered by Adrian Baker. Production co-ordination by Tom Martin. ABOUT ADRIAN BAKER: Singer, songwriter and producer Adrian Baker made his debut as a singer on Magnet/Epic Records in the United Kingdom. In 1975, he released his first solo album, "Into a Dream." From that album, his cover of the Frankie Valli and Four Seasons song, "Sherry" was a top 10 hit on Britain's "Music Week" charts. Adrian performed several times on the BBC's Top of the Pops TV program from 1975 to 1982. In the United States, Adrian is best known for being the falsetto voice for the touring Beach Boys band (on and off) since 1981 (1981-82, 1988 - 1993, 1998 - 2004). Adrian was also a member of the touring Four Seasons with Frankie Valli from 1994-'95. Adrian is currently touring with the band Papa Doo Run Run.
