The splendor of this light is the effulgence which has been electronically created into music for violin, harmonic voices, sitar, tubular bells various synthesizers, strings, guitars, pianos, bass, drums percussion. The 2nd track, Illuminant spectacle blends classical influences that rise to a crescendo of exaltation, grandeur and mystical fervor. The 8th track, Between the pillars of light also blends classical influences. Here, I like to remind the listener of the cosmos that operates in harmony around us through a rich blend of sounds that produce a luminous quality. At times the mingling of harmonic voices, bells, strings and synthesizers is incandescent enough to illuminate your inner abode to a soft glow. The music on the other tracks generally floats in the atmosphere like a pleasant fragrance. At times the music produces sounds of celestial beauty that seems to emanate from a distant alluring source. Like a crystal emanating brilliant colors, melodic captivating sounds release an ambience that offers soothing vitality which can relax the mind. Effulgence is conducive to meditation, creative imagery and play while you do your yoga type exercises or simply as background music to create a pleasant mood. Now is the time to listen to the audio clips from Effulgence. Enjoy!
