Beats Working Live - a mix of self-penned and well known classic songs performed live in 1998 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Classic Rock, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: BEATS WORKING are a 4 piece guitar orientated rock band from the UK who have so far made 6 albums and whose latest album "Calm" has been receiving great reviews from music press all over the world. Their music has been likened in influence to various other well known rock and progressive rock bands, but is definitely their own special Beats Working sound - a special blend of song based rock that is gradually achieving critical acclaim everywhere. "Live at the Drome" is a mixture of Beats Working original songs and classic cover songs, recorded live at West London Aerodrome in August 1995. "It's not often Britain produces a truly classy, mainstream rock band. But Beats Working definitely fall into this category. A combination of Dire Straits, Pink Floyd and Bad Company with added touches of Barclay James Harvest this foursome make it all sound so relaxed and easy, as they groove their way through 12 stylishly melodic songs that ooze maturity, yet avoid sounding contrived. One of the most impressive British rock albums in ages, 'Calm' is classic rock in all senses of the term." MALCOLM DOME, Classic Rock Magazine LATEST NEWS BEATS WORKING are currently working in the studio on their new album "Perspection" scheduled for release on Swamp Records. Up to date details of the band are available from beatsworking.tv. Fans of the band are welcome to make contact with them via website email addresses. We hope you enjoy visiting us and most of all our music..... March 2005 - Single "Outside My Window" released to Internet Radio.
