

Mp3 Bikeride - Thirty-seven Secrets I Only Told America

DOWNLOAD HERE

The album that put Bikeride on the map. Raved about in MOJO, Uncut, Rolling Stone, and everywhere else, 37 Secrets is the quintessential pop album for pop lovers. A perfect fusion of Earth, Wind, and Fire, Jobim, and The Kinks. It's that good. 37 MP3 Songs POP: 60's Pop, POP: California Pop Details: Here's some press- LA TIMES- Morning Macumba is a collection of gorgeous, fully formed 60s international vocal pop How such grand, embraceable vocal harmonies have flown so long under the radar is a bit of a mystery. AMPLIFIER- The pop renaissance of the 90s owes much of its success to talented, young indie artists like Tony Carbone. MOJO- Best stick with Bikerides 37 Secrets I Only Told America, creamy Anglophile indie jazz pop, with Moog, Wurlitzer, and Latino beats. CMJ- Satellite photos from high above California have revealed a strange and wonderful new talent with the unlikely, Scorsese-character-like name of Tony Carbone. As leader of the unwieldy Bikeride collective, Carbones assembled the latest in a line of uncategorizable Golden State pop masterpieces. OC WEEKLY- Back to Morning Macumba for a sec: this was the album that moved us from "They're not bad" Bikeride fence-sitters to drooly-faced, bug-eyed, heavy-breathing, pom-pom shaking Bikeride cheerleaders. POP MATTERS- Fakin Amnesia is one of 2002's best songs, really. COMFUSION- Morning Macumba is one of the stangest, most uplifting album of the year. IN MUSIC WE TRUST- Bikeride covers the pop spectrum, a vast undertaking, and somehow makes each song unique and different, while retaining the Bikeride sound throughout. Ill give it an A. THE BIG TAKEOVER- Not everyone can be Brian Wilson or Phil Spector, regardless of how lofty their aspirations may be. So what is a would-be wall-of-sound popsmith to do? Maybe take a lesson or two from Long Beach, CA's Bikeride. NEXTPLANETOVER- For the past month I've been playing a cd by a band called Bikeride so often that my need to hear it probably qualifies as an addiction. AVERSION- Unlike Beck, Fatboy Slim, or most of the other polyester-flag waving retro revivalists, Bikeride approaches its journeys into 70s pop without the affected cooler-than-thou sense of kitsch marking the bulk of its contemporaries work. EYE- Regardless of how many goodies the band tosses into the stew, what keeps it so succulent is the never-faltering earnestness of it all. SOUND AFFECTS- What do you get when you throw every dazzling moment from the pop highlights reels of the last 35 years into a blender. Bikeride If its at all possible to actually wear out a CD the way you could wear out the grooves of old LPs, then Ill be in the market for a new copy of this disc very soon. EXCLAIM- Carbone delivers his own State of the Suburban Union Address in Thirty-Seven Secrets, a frequently wonderful product of low-budget ingenuity and a big, soft heart. INDIE SCENE- Tony Carbones voice pulls you in with its distinctive charm. Gutsy, flirty and vaguely childlike, he sounds like the boy version of Gwen Stefani I cant overstate the joyful vigor of this album. Its smart, its fun, its sharp, its bodacious and its just a little bit sloppy. In other words, a perfect pop record. SPLENDID- Morning Macumbas most transcendently melodic moments seem like pure serendipity one hundred percent luck, zero percent studio trickery. Their successes are exhilarating. REVIEWS!
