This precious tribute to our essential world inspires creativity and amplifies the senses, where we are lifted and carried into a realm of freedom and well being. Featuring the talents of internationally acclaimed recording artists Kit Walker on piano, Jack Gates on guitar and Helene Attia contributing vocals, guitar and French interpretations on The Sun Comes Up and Goodnight Moon, our album will inspire and nourish the whole family. This children's music CD is a hit with every preschool that plays it. In addition to being first choice by both toddlers and teachers, it makes a great birthday gift, baby shower present and is a perfect pick for fundraising events. Your child will delight in acting out the movements to Sun Comes Up, Ten Little Fingers, waltz and twirl to Dandelion Fairies, or learn step by step how to plant a garden and make sun tea in A Gardener's Song and Sun Tea. While Star Light and Moon Follows Me will calm and sooth little one's and the teachers too! This CD of kids songs is exquisitely arranged to open with melodies that stimulate creativity and active expression in the young child [songs 1-9] celebrating nature in the world around us. Then comes full circle [songs 10-17] inviting the listener to soften and steep in the texture of their own rich inner world. To linger here is to remember our innate nature, the beautiful and subtle realm of our true self. A valuable resource for self reflection and quiet time, nap time and lullabies. Deeply nourishing, healing and renewing for all ages. To read the fascinating story of how these songs came to be and how our project evolved, please go to SongsOfHeartto the ABOUT US page.
