

Mp3 Christin Cook - For The Love

Much like Sheryl Crow, Patti Griffin, and Michelle Branch, young, extremely talented guitar girl writes intimate, transparent lyrics with a catchy, rocking pop band that will blow your mind...and be on it all day. This CD will live in your player. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, POP: Power Pop Details: 21 year old Christin Cook is hard to categorize. She writes deep, emotional lyrics with obviously serious brain matter under her unique hair, plays guitar like the boys with her manicured nails and looks amazing with an unstoppable clothing style that bounces with her on stage. But, the clincher is ...oh, yeah, she's saving her first kiss for her wedding day. She's a proponent of abstinence. Heralding the opposite of what the pop world says is the right thing to do, she is barreling her way across America, changing her generation, one grassroots fan at a time. Hard to believe that this same soft spoken, intelligent girl is the one who rocks the house across the country. Her sound and look may be juxtaposed to her innocence, but just remember that this is a new generation that doesn't necessarily think that the generation who has gone before them have had all the answers. Maybe this is the new controversy, the new rarity...the ones who say "no" to what the world is shoving down their throat. Is the pop world seeing the new rebel? May be... christincook.com (For press, photos, bio, music, videos and more...) Contacts: Artist Management: Karen Cook Music-Works.us (800)hotsound ext 180 (713)960-0122 (fax)
