J.S. Bach's cello suites played on the Fender Stratocaster by Daniel Ross Bortz 23 MP3 Songs

CLASSICAL: Bach, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Show all album songs: J.s. Bach Suites Songs Details:

Daniel Ross Bortz was one of the founding members of the Los Angeles based group Kittyhawk. He composed original music for the band playing guitar, cello, fretless guitar and Chapman Stick Touchboard. His dream for this project was to combine the timeless music of J.S. Bach's Cello Suites and arrange it for Solo Fender Stratocaster. Then to play the music with no tricks or over dubs and let the timeless classical music sing through the simple Fender Stratocaster Guitar. With the worlds' most wonderful music played on the greatest electric guitar, mixed at one of the best studios in the world,

Sunset Sound L.A. The only variable is the player. Hopefully, if you enjoy it, He did his job.
