Beatlely Pop Rock 10 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Devlin Murphy is a young singer, musician and songwriter from Los Angeles, California, who literally grew up inside the famous Hollywood recording studio Track Record built by Emmylou Harris in the 1970's. Having been intimately exposed to such major artists like Aerosmith, Blink 182, Off Spring, Janes Addiction and Tupac Shakur during the recording of their albums, as a child Devlin became inspired by their work, fueling his own passion for music and the desire to entertain, leading him to embark on a professional career of his own that has already been marked by early success. Devlin's song Real One is in the movie National Lampoons Dorm Daze 2, and he has been described by Michael Soares of NBC's Access Hollywood as "full of promise." This February Devlins three indie videos Nowhere, Im on a High, and Where do we all go were selected to air on MVSpyTv on the Comcast VOD Network. These videos will be available in broadcast quality to TV viewers in over 11 million homes in the US. You can listen to his newest songs, see his upcoming gigs, and write him a comment at myspace.com/devlinmurphy and DevlinMurphy.com.
