This is the sophomore album coming to you from DJ Scandaelicious. Straight out of the woods (but it's all good) of Oma, Mississippi. His style is his own. Call it CornRow Soul. Coming from the heart. "It's all me." Hard and mellow like a swig of Henny Hen. 15 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: What's up and what's happening witcha? My name is DJ Scandaelicious. AKA - Marvin McNeil. I am the CEO and founder of Those Nachos Records. Say it. Those Nachos (those not yours) Records. Get it? Got it? Good! I founded this label in 1998. It is the label for little man eliminating the middleman and the other man. I do everything myself. From production to manufacturing. I make the beats. I write the lyrics. I perform my own songs. I mix and edit. I master the albums. I do the album covers. Everything but distribute to an extent. I have CD Baby for that (thanks fellas/ladies). But the most unique thing about my company/business is that I do everything out of my semi-truck. I'm a truck driver to most. To me, I'm a professional tourist. I get paid to see the country. This gives me an opportunity to meet and mingle with people in other areas. To search for talent. I keep my studio in my truck which is called Big Bertha Mobile Studio. And I have a home studio which is called Tower of Power Studio that is based out of OMA, Mississippi. It's in the woods but it's all good. I don't sample so don't ask. I leave that for Kanye. I want my money. I am looking for talent to make beats for. That's my first love. Performing is for everyone else who wants to do it. But I will do it if push comes to shove. This is my second solo album. My first album "Whatcha Workin' With? - The Album" was the blueprint for others to follow example by. They didn't heed to it, so I came back with this one. Better than the first. No sophomore jinx. Album so good it'll make you slap yo' mama! I'll holla at cha later fer sho. Peace and all the hair-grease.
