DANCE POP 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, POP: Party Pop Details: Lisa and Erica are the multitalented and delectable duo known as the "Fantasy Twins". Born in Seoul, South Korea they moved to Japan and sojourned to the United States where their life long ambitions of embarking on international singing careers are coming to fruition. The single "Fantasy", from their debut album has been recorded in three languages they speak fluently English, Korean and Japanese. Their musical talents surfaced very early in their lives. Erica and Lisa sang in church choirs as early as the age of 9. Thereafter, they entertained family members and friends. Their Pursuit of education brought the fantasy twins to the United States, where Erica has been a veteran of several bands like SX4, and has recorded three songs including a cover of "Cherish" with George Brown, a keyboard player/drummer from Kool and the Gang. In July of 2002, she performed "Celebration", "Lady's Last Night" and "Cherish" with Kool at the Hollywood Bowl. Erica provided inspiration for Lisa, her twin sister, who was immersed in studies in Oriental Medicine. Watch out for these Fantasy Twins. They are guaranteed to double your listening pleasures!
