Unbelievable screaming arty hardcore at it's best 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Noise, ROCK: Math Rock

Details: Archeopteryx are a two piece drums guitar band. Dual vocal screams and harmonies coupled with sporadic changes make them exciting and fresh in a sea of normality. The truth is they just want to have fun and share that experience with others at shows. Their intention is only to make music they think is interesting and exciting. Their inspiration is drawn from all types of avante garde music and art, with a focus on exploring structure and the internal process. Much of the lyrical elements of Archeopteryx are rooted in satire and will acknowledge the ridiculousness of their own aesthetic. Within Archeopteryx there is a very distinct duality which is telling of their intention and personalities. The general sound is one of chaotic, out of control anger and frustration, but the lyrics reflect humor and sarcasm. While being serious about playing music they are simultaneously making fun of themselves and the type of music they play. Sean and Devon have been playing music together for ten years in many different incarnations spanning many different types of music. Because of this they have a strong musical intuition from working with eachother which has created the end product of what has become Archeopteryx. Over the past four years Archeopteryx has played with other bands such as: Erase Eratta, Hot Cross, Engine Down, Malady, The Velvet Teen, The Plot To Blow Up The Eiffel Tower, The Blood Brothers, and Minus The Bear, to name a few. What it is the sound of two retards fighting? Get Get Go is a picture of two masses forming a collection of screams that have been compiled on several CDs and on a piece of vinyl. Rocking for the sake of rocking and the love for playing to as many ppl as possible, whether it's three.. or three. GET GET GO bring the teeny-boppin hard pain: care of 200 mph snot-nosed skreech. Buried under the flash attack of pink tennis shoes and flying guitars are melodies that bring to mind bands like Rites of Spring. Only filtered through the revolutionary leaps between the post-NOU era San Diego of the mid-90's and the more recent slice and dice action of bands such as Combat Wounded Veteran. Too skinny to actually rip your face off, GET GET GO is happy to just pop a huge boner in your face and make a run for it. Playing last shows from now until forever.
