Giano of PNG Productionz debuts ROM 7 with powerful lyrics and smooth beats to uplift, reprove, and encourage in the name of Jesus Christ. 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast Details: PNG PRODUTIONZ is comprised of two members: Prophetik N (and) Giano. The group formed in Orlando, FL in 1995 on the guest to put out a product that would give the complete circle of hip-hop music: beats, rhymes, life, and skills. However, the providence of God in circumstances kept them from getting to the next level. In 1998, both members decided to surrender their hearts and lives over to Christ; and in doing so, they both agreed that their new Christian lifestyles were not conducive to the music that they were making. Thus, they gave up doing music totally, choosing to read and study the Word deeper for themselves in order to elevate their minds more spiritually and if it was Gods will, they would return to the music if and when they could devote all their energy and talents to the Lord and not for self-glorification. After two previous underground releases (The Element (2003), Element II (2004)), the front man of PNG Productionz, Giano comes with a bangin' solo release, complete with uncompromising, inspirational lyrics, hot tracks and that eclectic "night time music" feel reminiscent of classic hip-hop from the '91-96 era blending rhythmically with an Art of Noise influence. Giano is undoubtedly one of the most talented, versatile lyricists to touch any mic to date. And most impressive is the God-glorifying, Christ-centered content contained within each bar of each verse. Not a single phrase is lost, not a word wasted. Rarely is that "rewind factor" seen in emcees anymore. PNG Productionz presents that ol' raw classic material with Giano's "R.O.M. 7" that will easily be placed on anyone's "timeless" list.
