Details: James Gilbert Bio Ever since I was a young boy I have loved music of all kinds. I am a fourth generation musician who was raised in a very spiritual environment, which fueled my appreciation for both gospel and blues music. Both of my parents were strict and in an effort to stay out of trouble I spent hour after hour teaching myself to play a variety of instruments, which includes drums, piano, lead and bass guitars. My singing ability was strengthened through listening to my Mother sing old spirituals around the house. In 1979 I had the honor of sharing the stage with Blues Legend John Lee Hooker. In 1980 while attending high school, I was fortunate enough to play guitar for my neighborhood church until graduating in 1982. In 1990 my bass playing was put to the ultimate test when I was selected to accompany Legendary B.B. King on a 6-week tour. In 1992 I made my television acting debut for the Toyota Corporations Big Spring Sale, which aired nationally. Also in 1992 my vocal talents were featured on a Missouri Lotterys Pick 3 promotion that aired locally. In 1993 I performed with an all-star group of local musicians for the pilot episode of Kansas City Crossroads, a syndicated T.V. documentary that showcased past and present local and national musicians. In 1997 my acting talents were once again called upon to be the lead actor in the release of a Red Hot Records music video of the Brook Benton classic Rainy Night in Georgia. In 1991 I was part of a group of American musicians chosen to perform in the Annual Blues Festival held in Amsterdam, Holland. Currently, when not playing with the Big Woody Band, I have channeled my creativity in conjunction with Kansas City Living Legend Eugene Smiley, Sr. in creating my first solo c.d., due out later this year, which will serve as a pinnacle for a career spanning 35 years. Musicians I have been fortunate enough to play with and/or open for include: John Lee Hooker, B.B. King, Phil Guy (Buddy Guys Brother), Little Milton Campbell, Little Johnny Taylor, A.C. Reed, David

Dee, Tinsley Ellis, Charley Musslewhite, Little Hatch, Mary Moore, Lavalie White, Chick Willis, Vernon Garrett, Little Joe Blue, Blues Boy Willie, Buster Benton, Millie Jackson, Gary BB Coleman, Zapp, Bobby Blue Bland, Koko Taylor, Johnny Taylor, Johnny Winter, Delbert McClinton, War, Doyle Bramhall, Screamin Jay Hawkins, Tyrone Davis and Denise LaSalle.
