Formally a member of Aftalife with his partner Big Left they have put together 2 classic albums Lost World and Spoken Wordz. This is Marz first solo project. He is not only the driving force behind the lyrics but also responsible for all the production and graphics on the album. Marz : The Passage is a combination of all sides of his personality. Marz has been to the top of the mountain and back again when it comes to his life and music. Marz remembers a time when Hip Hop was more about Poetry and Intelligence rather than Money, Hoes, and Riches. True to who he is, making music for the club is less important than making music for the soul. Songs like Music I Love expresses why he makes hip hop in the first place. While So Many Ways explains how hard it is for MC's to respect themselves in the music business. We all know in the end it comes down to Dollars and Cents, but when you love making music money comes second to the creative process. So light something up.... Twist the cap off that beer.... and enjoy a truly unique sound.
