Pro-Shoppe brings you that funky feel good hip-hop music again with there new release "Coin Toss". Hot tracks with hot lyrics to match. 20 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: PRO-SHOPPE "Hip-Hop For Grown folks" Tired of the same old cookie cutter hip-hop and R&B that is saturating radio and television airwaves these days? Well, place CD in player, push play and experience the Hip-Hop Chocolate City Soul vibes of PRO-SHOPPE. Tight beats and rhymes with something to say is what this duo from the Washington, DC Metropolitan area bring to the game. Bruce "Kool-Aid" Gardner Eric "Eddie Crew" Ring have created a sound that is comparable to none. The Duo was formed in 2000 when hip-hop was undergoing yet another metamorphosis from "Gangsta" to "Bling-Bling". Not wanting to perpetuate violence or materialism, Pro-Shoppe rhymes and sings about the things that the average b-boy b-girl can relate to. Things like providing for family, pursuing dreams, surviving environments, Life, death, love and just plain old good times. Both "Eddie Crew" and "Kool-Aid" are influenced by a vast variety of artist and genres that you can hear a little bit of everything on there songs. The duo captivates and draws the listener into whatever topic is being explored with a presence and "Flow" that's truly unique. Pro-Shoppe produces, and writes all of there material, and has formed there own independent label Payperwerk Records releasing the LP's "Life in the grind", "Erryday" "Coin Toss". With the release of These LP's, Pro-Shoppe found that there is an audience that's looking for just what Pro-Shoppe is providing, a mature melodic sound that keeps your head bobbing and your mind stimulated with songs of substance. Something missing in today's hip-hop music. The Music speaks for itself. So let it play and enjoy
