Contemporary Celtic from Scotland 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Children Of The Mist is a debut solo album but certainly not his first work. Ronnie started his musical career at the age of thirteen with the piano accordion and has since went on to learn the guitar, piano, keyboard, drums, percussion, lead vocals and backing vocals. He was the songwriter and producer of two albums with the Celtic Rock band Cutty Sark. Ronnie has also taught hundreds of students to play music and founded the highly successful Perthshire Music School in 1999, which his son Jamie Hunter now manages. Nine music books have been produced by Ronnie and can be viewed at castledeanrecords. A second album is nearly completed entitled Sing For Your Supper with a mix of traditional and original songs a special feature of this album is a song book with additional tracks on the CD karaoke style. Story telling is at the heart of these songs and a description of each song is given in the inlay card. E.G. Track 4 Bessie Bell Mary Gray. A sad story of two young girls who were tucked away in the forest around Perth for safety during the black plague. Unfortunately a young male admirer brought a present of a handkerchief but unknown to him it was contaminated with the plague and both girls died. The song is given from his perspective and the isolated grave stone can still be visited near Pitcairn Green in Perth.
