Details: Ryan David Miller has brought us his second album! Ghost in the Sea of Me is spoken poetry arranged with music at its most raw an honest form of emotion. Ryan takes us to his personal depth of torn heartache with the opening track Sparrows in the Guillotine through his anguish Catharsis, to his deep disconnection from the realization of a love lost Midnight Traveler, to the ending track Mermaids in my Dreams as the acceptance he has come too. If you have ever parted with a love that still shows their ghost in your deepest longings and even hopeless hopes this album will connect with you, to the core. With credited and respected guitarist Christopher Wells amplifying Ryans words with a signature guitar sound, it is without a doubt like nothing else on the market today. Respected tenor sax and synth composer Matthew Scott shares his musical ability on more contemplative tracks like Fairytale Sin and Scarlet Air to name a few. The album was also recorded and mixed by the creative genius ear of Frank Stroehmer (North Carolina Based Band, Gollum) for even further atmosphere. One of the most thought provoking wordsmiths emerging today. All twelve tracks will move and connect with you even after the album has ended.
