Details: Guitar has been my love since nine years old. I have played in both folk and old-time groups. Although I learned as a fingerpicker, for some years I flatpicked -- but fingerpicking is really my style. You can hear the influence of Southern folk, roots, Americana, blues, and fiddle tunes throughout my playing - and even some hints of Southern rock and roll - often with a Jimmy Reed undertone. I have tried to play a variety of songs - from Appalachian, to Delta, to ragtime, to rock and roll, as well as a few of my songs. I hope you enjoy, and if so, drop me an e-mail. I would love to hear from you, and will certainly write back. Peace - Alex
