Foo Fighters meets Alanis Morissette. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Modern Rock

Details: Amanda Droste is no American Idol, and she is sure to let you know early on with one of her standout tunes sarcastically titled-what else-American Idle. Along with 9 other gems, her first full-length album UNFAZED has debuted to positive reviews. The CD released February 14th, 2008 at

AmandaDrostealready has critics claiming, Her brand of snappy pop-punk songs are better than most of the music out right now. After working and writing with industry pros such as Sonys own Andre Deyo (writer: Jennifer Lopez), and Jimmy Greco (writer/producer: Santana), Amanda sought out producer Bart Migal for her own project. Together they built strong rock songs with playful pop hooks, genuine lyrics and varied personas. The contrast of whispered intimate stories and forceful biting narratives means

Amandas Unfazed is already drawing comparisons ranging from Liz Phair to Alanis. Though she sounds far less pretentious and forced than Avril could ever hope to be. So says TheBlackTambourine. Landing the cover of Good Times Magazine as one to watch in 2007, her face will soon grace newsstands again in the March 2008 issue (distributing to over 1,500 locations in New York). With songs released in a sneak preview, I Wont Know was voted one of NextBigHit.coms Best of 2006 while American Idle climbed to 6 all-time in pop rock at Garageband.com. Previously, her debut EP Tide You Over (2004) ranked 13th out of 72,838 artists on CDBABY.com, and was met with praise such as Perfectly performed, expertly recorded intro effort, so it is no surprise her latest album is generating interest again. A New York transplant, the Michigan native can be found performing with her band at such legendary venues as: The Central Park Band Shell, Snitch, Crash Mansion, The Cutting Room and The Canal Room in NYC- she also recently added The Whiskey A Go Go and Genghis Cohen in L.A. to her conquests. Request her at a radio station near you. OTHER GARAGEBAND HONORS: Track of the Day on Oct 18, 2006 in Pop
