Indie-pop Seattle native with dynamic vocals and touching lyrics. Recommended if you like Natalie Merchant, Fiona Apple, Rachael Yamagata. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Pop Underground, ELECTRONIC: Folktronic Details: Andie Francoeur grew up in a small country town in eastern Washington, the eldest daughter of a classic rock/blues artist. For sixteen years, she trained as a classical pianist and vocalist under the tutelage of Preta Laughlin and Cris Youngberg. Andie augmented her skills by performing in musicals, select choirs, and state Solo and Ensemble competitions. Upon graduation, she moved to Seattle and began a solo music career, performing regularly in singer-songwriter showcases, all the while building a repertoire that would eventually culminate in her 8 song debut, Morning Light. In 2005, Andie teamed up with producer/auteur Jazno (from Mercymachine), armed with her trusty American Standard Telecaster and vintage Kremlin Bros. upright piano. Morning Light was mastered by Grammy award winner Bob Katz at Digital Domain. A few noteworthy venues where Andie has performed in 2007-8: Triple Door, Rendezvous Jewel Box Theater, Solo Bar, Christoff Gallery, Conor Byrne, Seattle Glassblowing Studio, and Q Cafe. Morning Light will be available at CD Baby and iTunes March 2008. Vocals, piano, guitar- Andie Francoeur Sequencing/synths- Jazno People who are interested in Fiona Apple Natalie Merchant should consider this download.
