Growing up in an area with such a rich musical heritage, its no surprise that he would aspire to sing and write the music he loved. It was just something that came natural; an expression of who he was and where he was from. By the time he got to college he was performing all across his native Mississippi, as well as parts of Tennessee and even as far north as Washington, DC. His Present Chet Lott has achieved a wide range of experience in the music industry. From live performances to studio sessions; hes done it all. He has shared the stage with many well known entertainers including Rickie Lee Jones, Taj Mahal, Larry Gatlin, John Michael Montgomery, Guy Hovis, Troy Gentry, The Oak Ridge Boys and Exile. His studio work includes his independent debut album, Erased It and his soon to be released follow-up CD entitled Wild Ride, both produced by his co-writer and mentor, award-winning singer/songwriter, JP Pennington. His Music Chet Lott has created a unique musical style all his own with his blues infused Mississippi style country. Its fresh and edgy, emotional and pure. Its honest and inviting. Its country with the salty flavor of the delta blues. His CD includes songs that celebrate his Mississippi heritage with titles such as "Welcome to Mississippi", "Natchez Girl", "Where Am I From", and a soulfully breezy cover of Van Morrison's "Tupelo Honey". Chet Lotts signature style has captured the interest of listeners nationally, as well as internationally. His music is featured daily on syndicated radio statewide in Mississippi and can also be heard on numerous other stations in the U.S., France and Poland. His original song Where Am I From is featured on a compilation CD with global distribution to over 1500 radio stations throughout North America, Europe and New Zealand. His Endeavor Since the devastation of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Chet Lotts music has provided him the opportunity to give back to a region he loves and to support a cause very dear to his heart. Through CD sales and concert appearances, he has raised and donated more than $125,000 to the Southeast Chapter of the American Red Cross for hurricane relief efforts. His Future Chet Lott will continue to write, sing and record the music that is so much a part of him. And he will always share it with those who want to listen. Making music is second nature to him. Its just what he does. Its just what he is. For more information on Chet Lott please visit chettlott.myspace.com/chettlott
