A charismatic performer . compelling singer-songwriter . magnetic ability to captivate audiences with his own brand of humorous storytelling, enriched with a sensitive blend of folk and roots influences. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Gentle Details: Dave Gunning has been acclaimed as one of Canadas best up-and-coming singer-songwriters. A charismatic performer, Dave is known for infusing his shows with his own brand of humourous tales and touching commentary on the everyday, bringing a new vibrance, energy and life to his heartfelt songs. Blending sensitive folk and innovative arrangements to his original and traditional songs, Gunning is rapidly building a solid audience fan base wherever he performs. With an extensive catalogue of original material, Dave has released six award winning recordings, his latest project House For Sale (released October 2007), Dave Gunning Christmas (2006), Two-Bit World" (2004), Dave Gunning Live" (2002), Caught Between Shadows" (2000) and Lost Tracks" (1996). Daves original song, Here She Comes a Running (from his CD, Caught Between Shadows) was featured on the "Atlantic Standards 2 CD release (distributed by Warner Music) celebrating some of the finest musical talent from Eastern Canada. His touching rendition of the classic A Dream That Can Last debuts on the two CD compilation "Borrowed Tunes 2: A Canadian Tribute to Neil Young (Universal Music) with a variety of Canadas top recording artists including, the Barenaked Ladies, Raine Maida, Tom Cochrane, Ron Sexsmith, Liam Titcomb, and Finger Eleven to name a few. On a lighter front, Dave also appeared in two episodes of the hit TV show Trailer Park Boys playing the role of the forest ranger (summer 2007) broadcast on the Showcase Network. Gunnings 2006 Christmas release, fittingly titled, Dave Gunning Christmas features the popular original track, Daddys Beer, (co-written with Jamie Robinson) which became a huge hit with fans who discovered the sweet, silly holiday tale when Gunning played it on Canyons 2005 Christmas tour and 2006 fall tour. The song has gone on to become a favorite with country radio programmers and listeners during the holiday season. 2005 marked a very successful year for Dave, picking up two awards for his recording, Two-Bit World - ECMA Folk Recording of the Year and a second Award from Music Nova Scotia in the same category. Daves co-write, Prince of Pictou (co-written with Jamie Robinson) was awarded First Place Winner in the Folk category in the International Acoustic Music Awards and received an honorable mention in the USA Songwriting Competition. Gunnings previous recordings, Caught Between Shadows and Lost Tracks, were also nominated in the Roots/Traditional category at the ECMAs in their respective years. The support was enhanced when his video for his song Here She Comes a Running from his CD, Caught Between Shadows was picked up by CMT Canadas Celtic Country program. In 2002, Dave had the incredible experience of performing on a 22-date sold-out tour with Canadian music legend Stompin Tom Connors. The pairing proved to be a good one, as the spicy East Coasters were a great mix. That same year, Gunning released the album Live, and picked up three Music Nova Scotia Awards for Producer, Engineer and Recording Studio of the Year (for his studio, Riverfront Studios). In 2003, the accolades continued as he was awarded the prestigious Music Nova Scotia Musician of the Year Award. Engaging and captivating as a solo performer, as a duo, trio or with his band, Dave has the magnetic gift of captivating audiences by painting pictures with his compelling storytelling, lyrics and musical arrangements. On the platform of international recognition, Dave continues to tour in support throughout Canada, the US and UK. People who are interested in should consider this download.
