Mp3 Gina Feliciano - A Song For You

DOWNLOAD HERE

An eclectic collection of inspirational music geared towards multiple audiences. The genres include r&b, rock, contemporary christian, and gospel. Come and take this journey with Gina Feliciano on her debut album "A Song For You." 13 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Brooklyn, NY native Gina Feliciano was born to sing. As a preachers kid Ginas musical roots were formed in the Assemblies of God church. At the tender age of eleven she led the congregational worship service for the first time. By age thirteen she was receiving requests from church leadership to sing at special events within the church body. In high school Gina was a featured performer in numerous community events and programs throughout California. Gina continued her education and singing career while a student at Vanguard University in Costa Mesa, CA. She joined the Vanguard University Choir and toured the United States and internationally in China and Korea. In addition to the choir, Gina was a worship leader for the Southern California Youth Convention Worship Team ministering to thousands annually as well as a member of VOW (Voices of Worship) an eight member Christian ensemble which performed in various churches in Southern California. She recently received the honor of being chosen from a pool of thousands of delegates to participate as a member of the Los Angeles 2006 Azusa Street Centennial Celebration Worship Team. Gina has signed a record deal with Levelhead Entertainment and has just release her CD "A Song For You."

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color (the Lamp Album)