It's as if Lindsay gives you the key to her private journal entries in her debut CD, Book of my mind. Her modern pop/rock story-like songs with "courageous lyrical elements" display a "rare sense of honesty" that will leave you captivated. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Originally from Cleveland, Lindsay Bloom began her musical career at the ripe age of 4, as her older brother made her memorize the rap stylings of DJ Jazzy Jeff and the Fresh Prince. It wasn't long until Lindsay was up on stage and local store countertops performing her newly learned rap routines sporting a leather jacket and dark shades. As she discovered her love of performing, Lindsay got involved in the local theatre community and was in countless productions throughout the city. When her teenage years approached, it looked like shed never make it as a rap star, and Lindsay picked up the guitar. Almost immediately, she put her thoughts and feelings in the form of songs and since then has filled up notebooks of catchy tunes inspired by real-life situations and experiences. Lindsay started performing at area coffee-houses and bars and soon began to gather attention from local producers and record labels. Before graduating High School, she was signed with an independent label and started working with producers from New York to Chicago. In 2000, she moved to New York City to pursue her interest in acting and attended the New York School for Film and Television for an intensive training program. After a couple years of living in nyc, and appearances in television shows including Saturday Night Live, Lindsay couldnt escape her passion to sing. During the last couple years, Lindsay has been writing songs and performing in multiple cities including the PRIDE festival. She recently went to work to record her first album Book of My Mind. Her story-like songs and unforgettable melodies leave you captivated, revealing Lindsays true essence in every heartfelt lyric. ***** Here's what TAXI reviewers have been saying: "The listener is dropped right into the middle of the mix: a very brave approach - better yet, it works. Excellent songs with intriguing lyrical elements. "What About Me" is a courageous lyrical treatise. The making of the CD adds a realistic element that sounds like real life. The song makes its point." "Strong female vocalist with a very modern sound." "These songs display a rare sense of honesty and excellent songwriting and performing personality." "A nice sense of entitlement and female empowerment in the lyrics." "... amazing potential as an artist and a songwriter. These songs are well-written and sound professional. I'm looking forward to hearing lots more from her in the future."
